The daily allee of Rs 150/- p.m. sanctioned to the Chief Secy for doing, in addition to his own, the work of the Secy E & A is certainly in order. But when the work of the Secy E & A was tacked on to the Chief Secy

Immediately after Mr. D'Souza went on leave the duly above attached to it does not appear to have been handed to the then Ch. Secy Mr. Balakrishna Iyer. Why it was so is not clear from the papers on the file. Presumably it was either not noticed or lost sight of. When the Ch. Secy had the work of the Secy Etc added thereon, it was found that it was too much for one officer & that relief to him was strongly indicated. In consequence, a substantial portion of the Ch. Secy's work was transferred & attached on to the Rev. Secy. As the result of this the latter's officer's work & responsibilities increased quite appreciably. A reference to the Rev Secy's Memo will, it seems to me, make the position clear. The work of three officers is now done by two & it stands to reason that the work of each of the latter must have increased by 50 p. c. While one officer has had the benefit of an above for this increase of work the other has not. This does not appear to be logical or fair tho it may be technically correct. In the light of this view I am of opinion that the Rev. Secy's representation is deserving of favourable consideration.

Request of Mr. B. Ramaswamiah, Revenue Secretary to Government for additional duty allowance.

OPINION OF THE COUNCIL.

Owing to the work of the three Secretaries having been temporarily distributed between two officers, the following duty allowances may be sanctioned:--

The Chief Secretary (both permanent and officiating) to receive an extra allowance of Rs.150 in addition to the full salary of the appointment.

The Revenue Secretary to receive an extra allowance of Rs.150 in addition to his salary.

Submitted to His Highness.

Owing to the absence of Mr.P.G.D'Souza, Secretary to Government, Departments of Education and Agriculture on deputation, the work of the three Secretaries, viz., the Chief Secretary, the Revenue Secretary and the Secretary, E & A. Depts., has been distributed between two Secretaries, the Chief Secretary taking the whole of the work of the Education and Agricultural Secretariat and the Revenue Secretary taking a portion (Protection Branch) of the work of the Chief Secretariat. This has substantially increased the work of the two Secretaries.

In the case of the present Offg.Chief Secretary who has also been appointed Offg.Secretary, E & A. Depts., the Service Regulations admit of his drawing the duty allowance attached to the office of the E & A.Secretary in addition to the emoluments of the Chief Secretary (Vide Notes & Orders in C.B. file 214-20-1) and orders accordingly have been issued.

As a portion of the work of the Chief Secretary has been transferred to the Revenue Secretary it is justifiable to give the Revenue Secretary also an allowance in consideration of the extra work. But there is no specific provision in the Service Regulations under which such allowance could be drawn. Mr.C.S.Balasundram Iyer, the permanent Chief Secretary has also claimed the duty allowance attached to the office of the E & A.Secretary for the period he was in charge of that appointment, viz., from the 23rd November 1920 to the 23rd January 1921. This claim also is admissible.

The question was considered in Council on the 4th instant when the following opinion was recorded:-

"Owing to the work of the three Secretaries having been temporarily distributed between two officers, the

the following duty allowances may be sanctioned:-

" The Chief Secretary (both permanent and officiating) to receive an extra allowance of Rs.150 in addition to the full salary of the appointment.

" The Revenue Secretary to receive an extra allowance of Rs.150 in addition to his salary".

The Financial Secretary has agreed to the above resolution. The opinion of the Council may be graciously approved.
